- (e) Save as aforesaid, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

XIII. MANAGEMENT OF THE CLUB

- 40. Composition: The Management of the affairs of Club shall vest in the Governing Body of the Club and shall be composed of the Office Bearers of the Club and as many other ordinary members as shall, with these office bearers, make up a total of not less than 12 and not more than 15.
- 41. Office Bearers:
 - President, to be elected as per these Articles
 - Vice-President, to be elected as per these Articles
 - Honorary Secretary, to be elected as per these Articles
 - Honorary Joint Secretary, to be appointed by the Governing Body from amongst themselves as per these Articles.
- 42. Election:
 - (a) The Office Bearers and Members of the Governing Body shall be elected every year from amongst the Ordinary Members of the Club at or before its Annual General Meeting and shall hold office until the next election is made, provided that any such member shall not be eligible for election to the Governing Body unless he has completed at least 3 years of such membership as on the date of the relevant Annual General Meeting in which he seeks election.
 - (b) If, for any reason, the Office Bearers and members of the Governing Body should not be appointed in any year, the Office Bearers and Members holding office during the previous year shall continue to do so until their successors shall be duly elected.

43. If any vacancy shall occur in any office during the interval between Two Annual General Meetings, the Governing Body may proceed to fill in the vacancy, and such person shall hold office upto the date of the ensuing Annual General Meeting, or such shorter period as the Governing Body may prescribe.
44. In the first week of the month of May every year, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient and practical, the Secretary shall, by circular letter, addressed separately to each Ordinary Member of the Club, ascertain if he is willing to serve on the Governing Body for the ensuing year. The reply to such enquiry must reach the office of the Club within 15 days of such enquiry and non-receipt of a reply from any member shall be regarded as tantamount to intimation that such member is not willing to serve on the Governing Body. The Secretary shall thereafter prepare a list containing the names of members who have intimated their willingness to serve on the Governing Body and place it before the next meeting of the Governing Body.
45. The retiring members of the Governing Body shall, before their retirement, frame a list containing the names of the members who, in their opinion, ought to constitute the Governing Body for the ensuing year. The Secretary shall simultaneously with the issue of notice of the Annual General Meeting, send to each ordinary member a list of members willing to serve on the Governing Body together with the recommendations of the retiring Governing Body.
46. If any Ordinary Member wishes to propose alternative names from among those who have indicated their willingness to serve in place of any recommended by the retiring Governing Body, he shall give notice of the same to the Secretary in writing and such notice should reach the Secretary at least 48 hours before the time fixed for the Annual General Meeting. Where alternative names have been proposed in place of those recommended by the retiring Governing Body, all such names shall be read out at the Annual General Meeting by the Secretary and, after being duly proposed and seconded, the said names shall be submitted to the vote of the meeting and candidates obtaining the largest majority shall be declared duly elected. The voting for election shall be by ballot of the Members present either in person or by proxy. Where there are no alternative proposals to any name recommended by the retiring Governing Body, such names shall be voted upon by show of hands.
47. No Member who has held office during the previous year shall be thereby disqualified for re-election.

XIV. MEETING OF THE GOVERNING BODY

48. Frequency: Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act 2013, the Governing Body may meet as often as necessary subject to the condition that it shall hold atleast one meeting within every 6 calendar months to transact any business that may be brought forward. The Governing Body may meet at such places and such times as they deem advisable and make such regulations as they think proper as to the summoning and holding of their Meetings and for the transaction of business at such Meeting.

49. Quorum: (a) The quorum for the meeting of the Governing Body shall constitute of 7 Governing Body Members. Provided that for election of Members as specified in Article 13 as well as for any amendment in the Rules, Regulations and Bye-laws, the quorum shall be 9 Governing Body Members.
- (b) The continuing Governing Body members may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the Governing Body; but, if and so long as their number is reduced below the quorum fixed by the Act for a meeting of the Governing Body, the continuing Governing Body members may act for the purpose of increasing the number of Governing Body members to that fixed for the quorum, or of summoning a general meeting of the Company, but for no other purpose.
50. Adjournment: If a Meeting is adjourned for want of quorum, the Meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day, time and place or to such other date, time and place as the Governing Body may determine and a quorum of 7 Governing Body Members will be required to transact the business detailed in the Agenda of such adjourned Meeting.
51. Chairman: The President, or in his absence or inability, the Vice-President, shall take the Chair. In the absence of both the President and the Vice-President, the Governing Body members present shall elect someone as Chairman from amongst themselves to preside at the Meeting.
52. Votes: (a) Each Member present shall have one vote and in the event of an equality of Votes, the President or Chairperson shall have a second or casting vote.
- (b) Save as otherwise expressly provided, questions arising at any meeting of the Governing Body shall be decided by a majority of votes.
53. Calling of Meetings: The Secretary shall convene meeting of the Governing Body on the written request of the President or upon requisition made in writing by any three members of the Governing Body; such requisition must express the object of the meeting.
54. Attendance at Meetings: The members of Governing Body on election are required to attend at least 50% of the total meetings of the Governing Body held upto the ensuing Annual General Meeting, failing which he shall be disqualified to stand for election for the Governing Body for the next 2 Annual General Meetings.

XV. POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE GOVERNING BODY

55. The Governing Body shall have power from time to time to make such Rules, Regulations or Bye-Laws (not being inconsistent with these Memorandum and Articles of Association or any Rule passed by the Club at a General Meeting) for the internal management of the Club and for regulation of all amusements facilities and other concerns of the Club as they think proper and shall also have power to amend or cancel the same as they think fit, provided that no Rules, Regulations or Bye-laws shall be made, amended or cancelled unless considered in a Governing Body Meeting in which not less than 9 (nine) members are present and approval is accorded by not less than 8 (eight) members present.

56. The Governing Body may, whenever they think fit, invite distinguished individuals to become patrons of the Club.
57. The Governing Body shall decide as to the number of servants necessary for the Club and their wages, and the Secretary, subject to the general control of the Governing Body, shall have power to appoint or dismiss them.
58. The Governing Body shall cause true accounts to be kept of all sums of money received or expended for the purpose of the Club and of the assets and liabilities of the Club, through the Secretary and/or appointed Committees, who shall pass all bills for payment, subject to conditions specified below in Article 59 and exercise a general supervision over the management of the Club with the assistance of the staff/officers of the Club.
59. The Honorary Secretary and/ or appointed Committees, subject to Article 58, shall be authorized to make payments towards routine operational expenses and recurring expenditures. Further, subject to the prior approval of the Governing Body, the Honorary Secretary and/ or any appointed Committee shall have the power to authorise net revenue expenditure per event in any financial year, upto an amount not exceeding 10% of annual subscription amount of the immediately preceding financial year as shall be approved by the members and prescribed in the Bye Laws of the Club.

Further, subject to the prior approval of the Governing Body, the Honorary Secretary and/ or any appointed committee shall have the power to authorize capital expenditure in all kinds of projects and equipments in any financial year upto an amount not exceeding 7% of the total Reserves and Surplus of the Club during the immediately preceding financial year or 50% of addition to Reserves and Surplus of the Club during the immediately preceding financial year, whichever is higher as shall be approved by the members and prescribed in the Bye-Laws of the Club.

Any revenue and/or capital expenditure, in excess of the above limits as approved by members, shall require the prior approval of the members in a meeting, in cases where the expenditure (revenue or capital or both) is contemplated to breach the approved limit and in other cases where the expenditure has already been incurred (revenue or capital or both), the said excess shall require ratification of the members in a meeting.

60. A statement of the monthly current income and expense, as also abstract of the Annual Accounts shall be submitted by the Secretary and/or appointed Committee to the Governing Body and no expense other than current expenses, exceeding Rs.1,00,000/- shall be incurred by the Secretary and/or any appointed Committee in any 1 (one) month without the sanction of the Governing Body.

61. A complete minutes of the proceedings of the Governing Body Meetings shall be kept by the Secretary, and the proceedings of each Meeting shall be read at the next Meeting and signed by the Chairman of the later Meeting by way of confirmation.
62. The Governing Body may organise dramatic entertainments, evening get togethers, social reunions, conversation, musical and steamer parties and picnics and all other kinds of innocent amusements with service of food/refreshments, whenever they think fit, and the expenses of such gatherings, and amusements, shall be met from the funds of the Club. Persons who are not Members may also be invited to such gatherings, if the Governing Body thinks fit. The expenditure for each such event shall however be subject to the limits specified in Article 59.

Provided however, that introduction of alcohol and non-vegetarian food items has to be referred to a meeting of the members of the Club for approval by a majority of the members present and voting.

63. The Governing Body may invite any distinguished person or persons to visit the Club and entertain him in any suitable manner as they think fit.
64. In furtherance and not in limitation and without prejudice to the general powers conferred by or implied in the Articles, it is hereby expressly declared that the Governing Body shall be entrusted with and shall exercise and perform the following powers and duties:
 - (a) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange or on hire or otherwise acquire for the purposes of the Club, any moveable or immovable property in particular, furniture, Club and household effects, stores, utensils, books, newspapers, periodicals, pictures, musical instruments, fittings, apparatus, appliance, rowing boats, yachts, stream or motor launches, all kind of sporting materials and machinery and other conveniences which the Governing Body may think necessary or useful for the purposes of the Club and to sell or dispose of the same, and any rights or privileges which the Governing Body may think necessary for the purpose of the business of the Club. This shall however be subject to limits specified in Article 59.
 - (b) To pay and discharge all outstandings and liabilities of the Club.
 - (c) To borrow or raise a sum not exceeding Rs. 10,00,000/- upon such terms as they may think fit, by the issue of Debenture or Debenture stock, charges upon any of the Club's property both present and future, and in addition thereto, with the sanction of 2/3rd of the ordinary Members of the Club, present in person or by proxy at an Extraordinary General Meeting to be called for the purpose, to borrow or raise any money required for the purposes of the Club in such a manner as the Governing Body may think fit, and in particular by the issue of Debenture or Debenture Stock, perpetual or otherwise charges upon any of the Club's property, both present and future, or by issue of Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes or other obligations or securities of the Club or by Mortgage or charge of all or any of the property or assets of the club, provided that no member of the Governing Body shall be personally liable for any money borrowed or liability undertaken by the Governing Body for the purposes of the Club.

- (d) To appoint the Bankers of the Club.
 - (e) To fix the Common Seal of the Club to any deeds or other documents required to be under its Common Seal. All such deeds or other documents sealed with the Common Seal and signed by the President and Secretary and one other member of the Governing Body shall be deemed to be duly executed.
 - (f) To appoint a deputation of their own body to wait upon the Government or any other person or body whenever necessary.
 - (g) To appoint any Committee to enquire into and report upon any subject or matter in the interests of the Club or to assist the Governing Body in performing its functions or for such other purposes as may be deemed necessary. Provided that:
 - (i) The Committee shall be made up of one or more Governing Body Member, one of whom shall Chair such Committee and 2 or more members of the club.
 - (ii) Such Committee shall derive their authority from the Governing Body and shall be responsible to the Governing Body.
 - (iii) The minutes of each such Committee Meeting shall maintained and be noted at the next Governing Body Meeting.
 - (h) To prepare and submit to the Annual General Meeting an Annual Report of the general affairs of the Club. Such Report shall set forth the income and expenditure from 1st April to 31st March, the balance in hand, the debts and assets, the prosperity, or otherwise, of the Club, the details of revenue or capital expenditure in excess of limits specified in Article 59.
 - (i) To take legal proceedings for the recovery of any sums, due by members who after receiving due notice of their liabilities, shall refuse or fail to discharge them.
65. Without prejudice to its general powers the Governing Body shall have the following powers:
- (a) To delegate, subject to such conditions as they think fit, any of their powers to Committees or Sub-Committees and to make, vary and repeal Bye-Laws or Rules for the Regulation of the proceedings of the said Committees/Sub-Committees.
 - (b) To make, vary and repeal Bye-Laws and Rules for the regulation of the business of the Club, of the officers or servants or of the Members of the Club or of any department or section of the Club.
66. The Management of the business, funds and property of the Club shall be vested in the Governing Body who, in addition to the powers by this Articles expressly conferred upon them, may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Club and are not hereby or by law expressly directed or required to be exercised or done by the Club in General Meeting.
67. All acts done by any meeting of the Governing Body or a Committee thereof or by any person acting as a Governing Body Member, shall, notwithstanding that it may be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any one or more of such member or of any person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such Governing Body Member or such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a Governing Body Member.

68. Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Act, a resolution in writing, signed by all the members of the Governing Body or a Committee thereof, for the time being entitled to receive notice of a meeting of the Governing Body or Committee, shall be as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Governing Body or Committee, duly convened and held.

XVI. DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES OF OFFICE BEARERS

PRESIDENT

69. The President shall preside at all Meeting of the Governing Body, at the General Meeting of the Club and over all deputations. He shall address the Members on such subjects as he may deem proper. Besides the ordinary vote, the President in case of even voting shall have a casting vote. In all matters, the President shall be guided by the decision of the majority.
70. The President shall have the general supervision of the business of the Club and shall communicate to the Club or to the Governing Body such matters and shall make such suggestions as may, in his opinion, tend to promote the prosperity and welfare and increase the usefulness of the Club and shall perform such other duties as may be incidental to the office of President.

VICE-PRESIDENT

71. The Vice-President shall assist the President and in the absence of the President or the inability of the President to act as such, shall have powers and perform the duties of the President and shall generally perform all such duties as may be assigned to him from time to time by the President or the Governing Body.

HONORARY SECRETARY
